

Covenant Theology: A Baptist Distinctive

Lesson Five

What is God's Covenant of Grace?

Define:

Unilateral –

Bilateral –

Based on the above definitions, is the Covenant of Grace a unilateral or bilateral covenant? Explain.

In what way do Arminians and others seek to make the Covenant of Grace a bilateral covenant?

In what way is God's single Covenant of Grace administered in different ways?

God's Covenant of Grace is characterized by both unity and diversity. What is the danger of viewing it as a covenant of unity or diversity?

What is the first subordinate covenant administration seen in Scripture?

When God called out, “Where are you?” to Adam, did He really not know where Adam was? Explain.

In what two ways is grace exhibited alongside the horrible judgment faced by Adam and Eve?

1.

2.

What do the skins of the animals sacrificed by God foreshadow?

What was the second administration of God’s Covenant of Grace?

Why is it important that we make note of the “anthropathic” language in Genesis 6:5?

In what way was the ark an administration of God’s Covenant of Grace?

Is the Noahic Covenant a “new” covenant or a continuation of the Covenant of Grace?

How is the rainbow also an administration of God’s Covenant of Grace?

Next: The Abrahamic Covenant