

Covenant Theology

Lesson Seven

What was the Mosaic or Sinaitic Covenant?

Those who deny that the Law of God remains in effect for believers today often cite two particular Scriptures as proof texts for their position. What are they and how are they to be understood?

Has the Law of God as expressed in the Ten Commandments been done away with?

What two predominant schools of thought exist with regard to the Law of God? What is the failing of each?

How might we maintain a balanced understanding of the relationship between the Law and the Gospel?

List three reasons for the continued relevance of the Law for the believer today.

1)

2)

3)

List three witnesses from the Word of God who bear testimony to the Law's continued relevance.

1)

2)

3)

How might one demonstrate that the Law was not contrary to or a substitute for grace?

Wasn't the Law simply a redux or republication of the Covenant of Works? Explain.

Samuel Bolton presented nine arguments explaining why the Sinaitic Covenant could never have been a redux of the Covenant of Works. List each of these arguments below.

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

8)

9)

For what purpose was the Law in three forms (moral, civil, and ceremonial) given?

1)

2)

3)

Free Grace
Baptist Church

What happened to the civil and ceremonial laws?

Where truth matters

Next: The Davidic Covenant