

Covenant Theology

Lesson Ten

- 1. What is an excursus?
- 2. What Old Testament Scripture does the writer to the Hebrews quote in Hebrews 8:10?
- 3. What are the “laws” that have been placed into our minds and written on our hearts?
- 4. Where does Jesus say that He had not come to abolish the Law but to fulfill it?
- 5. How do we carry out the laws that have been placed into our minds and written on our hearts? Where is this clearly expressed by the apostle Paul?
- 6. Has the Fourth Commandment (concerning the Sabbath) been abrogated or abolished?
- 7. What was John Calvin’s view on the continued relevance of the Sabbath?

8. How might we mitigate or soften Calvin's stance on the abrogation of the Sabbath?

9. What is John MacArthur's belief concerning the Sabbath?

10. Does the OT Sabbath differ from the NT Lord's Day? Explain.

11. Does this mean that the Sabbath has indeed been abrogated? Explain.

12. How might some display "Judaistic" or "Pharisaical" attitudes towards the Lord's Day?

13. Why is it that 70 years ago almost every Protestant church, including and especially Baptists, believed in the perpetuity of the Ten Commandments?

14. Is Christ not truly our Sabbath rest? Does this not negate any "legalistic" requirement to attend church regularly?
