

Covenant Theology

Lesson Thirteen

- 1. What does the word “perspicuity” mean?
- 2. Does this mean that everything in Scripture is clearly expressed? Explain.
- 3. What is the most important aspect of the unity of Scripture?
- 4. In what way is the Scripture diverse?
- 5. Why is the finality and clarity of the New Testament so important to acknowledge?
- 6. When considering the priority of the New Testament, are we to view it as more important than the Old Testament? Why or why not?

7. List four principles that should be kept in mind as one considers the relationship of the Old Testament to the New Testament:

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.

8. List the five priorities the author provides for the application of biblical hermeneutics:

- a.
- b.
- c.
- d.
- e.

9. Define the following terms:

- a. analogia Scriptura -

- b. analogia fidei –

10. What are some of the more important observations that must be made with regard to these two schools of thought (an extra piece of paper may be required)?

Next: A continued look at the unity of Scripture, the diversity of Scripture, and the priority of the New Testament for biblical hermeneutics.