

A Heart for God

Lesson Three

1. What important theme does Ferguson mention as running throughout Jesus' teaching in the upper room (recorded in John 13-17)?

2. In what way does the heart of the gospel depend on the Trinity?

3. According to Ferguson, what truths might we glean from Jesus' washing of His disciples' feet?

4. In the space below, using the information provided on pages 14-15, describe the parallels that exist between Paul's words in Philippians 2:5-11 and Jesus' actions in John 13:1-17.

Philippians 2:5-11	John 13:1-17

5. In your own words, explain how what happened in the upper room was designed to be “a visual introduction to teaching that would bring the disciples to a knowledge of God (John 17:3) at a depth they had never before experienced.

6. In what way does John chapter 1 teach that both the Father and the Son are indeed God?

7. What four aspects of Jesus’ relationship with the Father and the Spirit does Ferguson suggest emerge in the upper room?
