

From the Mouth of God

Lesson One

1. What three questions does Ferguson set out to explore in this book? Why are they important?

a.

b.

c.

2. According to the author, what three words were able to settle matters for Jesus and the apostles?

3. Have Christians always enjoyed the benefits of possessing their own copies of the Bible? Explain.

4. In Ferguson's opinion, why do we need the Bible?

5. In what way did the fall of Adam and Eve (and thus the fall of all mankind) dull man's perception of his Creator and his communion with Him?

6. In what way can we see evidence of this particular effect of the fall in people today?

7. How does the author of Hebrews summarize God's gracious explanation and interpretation of His actions in His word?

Next: The Necessity of Scripture