

From the Mouth of God

Lesson Three

- 1. What is “concurrency” as it relates to the transmission of God’s breathed-out word to man?
- 2. What is inherently wrong with the view that the Bible is merely a book written by men without any supernatural intervention?
- 3. What three examples does Ferguson provide to illustrate the Biblical principle of concurrency?
- 4. How can the principle of concurrency be demonstrated even in your own life?

5. In commenting that the authors of Scripture were “carried along” by the Holy Spirit, what two things is Peter indicating?

6. Consider the B.B. Warfield comment at the top of page 13. Was he, as some suspected, denying the inspiration of the Bible? Explain.

7. What is the “great chain” of revelation? What three promises are contained in this “chain”?

8. In what way can Paul’s experience be considered a parallel chain of revelation?
