

From the Mouth of God

Lesson Two

1. Why is it important that we possess God's word, not simply according to oral tradition, but in written form?

2. What factual or historical evidence do we possess which gives us confidence in the reliable transmission and preservation of God's word down through the ages?

3. What "life-restoring-and-transforming" goal does God's word have in view?

4. In what way is the Bible both a divine and a human book? Should the latter reality cause us to question the Bible's truthfulness or reliability? Explain.

5. What is meant by the term inspiration? In what way can this term be misunderstood?
