

From the Mouth of God

Lesson Six

1. In what way is Scripture a sufficient authority for the whole of the Christian life?

2. If Scripture is our final authority, exactly how reliable is it as the authority on which we should base the whole of our lives?

3. In what sense is Scripture without error in what it affirms?

4. In what way is there a finality about the New Testament Scriptures? Why is this important?
